The meeting was chaired by the Hon'ble Executive Chairperson wherein the Member Secretary, Sikkim SLSA, welcomed the Hon'ble Executive Chairperson, Sikkim SLSA and the stakeholders apprising about the agenda of the meeting.

The Hon'ble Executive Chairperson convened the meeting to seek opinions of the members who were present regarding premarital counseling, prior to registration of marriages. This point was mooted considering the increased number of divorces in Sikkim and the young adults enter the bond of marriage sans an understanding of the vast responsibility that come along with the marriage. This includes financial, societal, family, etc, responsibilities for which they appear to be totally unaware.

It was informed by Her Ladyship that the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India vide its judgment dated 14/02/2006, had directed the State Governments and the Central Government that, marriages of all persons who are citizens of India belong to various religious denomination should be made compulsorily registerable in their respective States, where such marriages are solemnized. Also, Her Ladyship informed about the provisions of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.
